Don't miss the Kidbrooke Summer Fete, 16th July

On the 16th July Kidbrooke Village will be hosting its annual summer fete (3pm to 9pm). KT Perry, the UK's No1 Tribute Artist will be headlining the day and take to a specially constructed stage in Cator Park, along with a number of other artists during the course of the fete.

A wide range of entertainment will be on offer for children of all ages including a selection of fairground rides. Food and drink stalls will also be on hand to ensure everyone attending can dance the afternoon away and well into the evening.

Karl Whiteman, Divisional Managing Director for Berkeley Homes East Thames, said: "Our annual summer fete is a great way for the community to come together and enjoy Kidbrooke Village's open spaces."

Further details of the artists performing, food stalls and entertainment will soon be unveiled and residents wishing to keep up to date should join our new @Kidbrooke twitter page or join the Kidbrooke Village Community Facebook page.

New Kidbrooke Village Noticeboard

YOU may have noticed two new Village Notice boards that have been installed by the Information Centre and at Halton Court, to help communicate upcoming events taking place in Kidbrooke Village

These boards will inform residents about any works taking place across Kidbrooke Village.

Those wishing to advertise their own events or meeting groups in the area, can use the boards your posters or leaflets and inform the community.

If you would like to advertise your events or news further then sign up to @Kidbrooke twitter page or the Kidbrooke Village Community Facebook page.

Friends of Sutcliffe Park

KIDBROOKE Village boasts 136 acres of open space, which attract a range of wildlife animals to the area.

Next to Kidbrooke Village is the award winning, Green Flag status Sutcliffe Park which was radically re-landscaped in 2003 by the Environment agency as part of the local flood defence scheme and reopened in 2004,

If you would like to become a member of the Friends of Sutcliffe Park community group then log onto the Facebook public group: Sutcliffe Park - Friends of Sutcliffe Park, where you can find further details.

ParksFest will return to Sutcliffe Park on the 2nd July, featuring a whole host of song and dance groups performing during the course of the day. The event runs from 12.30pm to 5pm; for more information about the day please visit: www.parksfest.org

Police Community Event

POLICE cars, horses, dogs and a selection of food and gift stalls descended on Kidbrooke Village on 22 May when Eltham Police held a Police Community Day.

Over 500 residents from the community took advantage of this free three hour event, which included a range of activities for children of all ages.

Ben Faxon from Eltham West Safer Neighbourhood Team was present on the day and said: "It was great that so many residents from Kidbrooke Village came down and got involved and hopefully they took a lot from the day."

Prior to the Police Community Day Ben Faxon and his team were down at Kidbrooke Village to collect their brand new bikes which were donated to the Police from Berkeley Homes.

Upon collecting the bikes Ben said "We are very grateful to Berkeley for providing these new bikes as they will enable us to police the area a lot quicker and enable us to get to places where a car may not be able too."
